COBRA COVERAGE NOTICE

COBRA coverage is available when a “qualifying event” occurs that would result in a loss of coverage under the health plan, such as end of employment, reduction of the employee’s hours, employee becoming entitled to Medicare, marriage, divorce, legal separation, annulment, and death.

Federal law requires that most group health plans give qualified beneficiaries the opportunity to continue their group health coverage when there is a qualifying event. Depending on the type of qualifying event, “qualified beneficiaries” can include an employee covered under the group health plan and his/her enrolled dependents. Certain newborns, newly adopted children, and children of parents under Qualified Medical Child Support Orders (QMCSOs) may also be qualified beneficiaries. This is discussed in more detail in separate paragraphs below. COBRA coverage is the same coverage that the State of Arizona offers to participants.

Each qualified beneficiary who elects COBRA coverage will have the same rights under the Plan as other participants, including open enrollment and HIPAA special enrollment rights. The description of COBRA coverage contained in this notice applies only to group health coverage offered by the State of Arizona (medical, dental, vision and healthcare Flexible Spending Account [FSA]). The Plan provides no greater COBRA rights than what COBRA requires – nothing in this notice is intended to expand your rights beyond COBRA’s requirements.

Electing COBRA Coverage

To elect COBRA coverage, you must complete the election form according to the directions on the election form and mail or deliver by the date specified on the election form to the ADOA Benefit Services Division. Each qualified beneficiary has a separate right to elect COBRA coverage.

For example, the employee’s spouse may elect COBRA coverage even if the employee does not and can elect coverage on behalf of all the qualified beneficiaries. COBRA coverage may be elected for only one, several, or for all dependent children who are qualified beneficiaries.

You may elect COBRA under the group health coverage (medical, dental, vision and health care FSA) in which you were covered under the Plan on the day before the qualifying event. Qualified beneficiaries who are entitled to elect

COBRA may do so even if they have other group health plan coverage or are entitled to Medicare benefits on or before the date on which COBRA is elected. However, a qualified beneficiary's COBRA coverage will terminate automatically if, after electing COBRA, he or she becomes entitled to Medicare benefits or becomes covered under another group health plan (but only after any applicable pre-existing condition exclusions of that other plan have been exhausted or satisfied).

Electing COBRA Under the Healthcare FSA

COBRA coverage under the health care FSA will be offered only to qualified beneficiaries losing coverage who have underspent accounts. A qualified beneficiary has an underspent account if the annual limit elected under the health care FSA by the covered employee reduced by reimbursements of expenses incurred up to the time of the qualifying event, is equal to or more than the amount of premiums for healthcare FSA COBRA coverage that will be charged for the remainder of the plan year. COBRA coverage will consist of the health care FSA coverage in force at the time of the qualifying event (i.e., the elected annual limit reduced by expenses reimbursed up to the time of the qualifying event).

The use-it-or-lose-it rule will continue to apply, so any unused amounts will be forfeited at the end of the plan year. FSA COBRA coverage will terminate at the end of the plan year. All qualified beneficiaries who were covered under the health care FSA will be covered together for health care FSA COBRA. However, each qualified beneficiary has separate election rights, and each could alternatively elect separate COBRA coverage to cover that qualified beneficiary only, with a separate health care FSA annual coverage limit and a separate COBRA premium. Contact the ADOA Benefit Services Division for more information.

Special Considerations in Deciding Whether to Elect COBRA

In considering whether to elect COBRA coverage, you should take into account that a failure to elect COBRA will affect your future rights under federal law. First, you can lose the right to avoid having pre-existing condition exclusions applied to you by other group health plans if you have more than a 63-day gap in health coverage. Election of COBRA coverage may eliminate this gap. Second, you may lose the guaranteed right to purchase individual health insurance policies that do not impose such pre-existing condition exclusions if you do not get COBRA coverage for the maximum time available to you. Finally, you should take into account that you may have special enrollment rights under federal law. You may have the right to request special enrollment in another group health plan for which you are otherwise eligible (such as a plan sponsored by your spouse's employer) within 30 days after your group coverage ends because of the qualifying event.

You will also have the same special enrollment right at the end of COBRA coverage if you get COBRA coverage for the maximum time available to you.

How Long Will COBRA Coverage Last

COBRA coverage will generally be continued only for up to a total of 18 months. When the qualifying event is the end of employment or reduction of the employee's hours of employment, and the employee became entitled to Medicare benefits less than 18 months before the qualifying event, COBRA coverage for qualified beneficiaries (other than the employee) who lose coverage under the Plan as a result of the qualifying event can last up to 36 months from the date of Medicare entitlement.

This COBRA coverage period is available only if the covered employee becomes entitled to Medicare within 18 months before the termination of employment or reduction of hours. In the case of a loss of coverage due to an employee's death, divorce or legal separation, or a dependent child ceasing to be a dependent under the terms of the Plan, COBRA coverage may be continued for up to a total of 36 months. Regardless of the qualifying event, health care FSA COBRA coverage may only be continued to the end of the plan year in which the qualifying event occurred and cannot be extended for any reason. This notice shows the maximum period of COBRA coverage available to qualified beneficiaries. COBRA coverage will automatically terminate before the end of the maximum period if:

- any required premium is not paid in full on time,
- a qualified beneficiary becomes covered, after electing COBRA coverage, under another group health plan (but only after any applicable pre-existing condition exclusions of that other plan have been exhausted or satisfied),
- the State ceases to provide any group health plan for its employees; or
- during a disability extension period (the disability extension is explained below), the disabled qualified beneficiary is determined by the Social Security Administration to no longer be disabled.

COBRA coverage may also be terminated for any reason that traditional enrollment would be terminated (for example, the Plan would terminate coverage of a participant or beneficiary not receiving COBRA coverage in a case of fraud).

You must notify the COBRA administrator(s) in writing within 30 days if, after electing COBRA, a qualified beneficiary becomes entitled to Medicare (Part A, Part B or both) or becomes covered under another group health plan (but only after any preexisting condition exclusions of that other plan have been exhausted). COBRA coverage will terminate (retroactively if applicable) as of the date of Medicare entitlement or as of the beginning date of the other group health coverage (after satisfaction of any applicable preexisting condition exclusions). The plan will require repayment of all benefits paid after the termination date, regardless of whether or when you provide notice of Medicare entitlement or other group health plan coverage.

Extending the Length of COBRA Coverage

If you elect COBRA coverage, an extension of the period of coverage may be available if a qualified beneficiary is or becomes disabled or a second qualifying event occurs. You must notify the COBRA administrators in writing of a disability or a second qualifying event in order to extend the period of COBRA coverage.

Failure to provide notice of a disability or second qualifying event will affect the right to extend the period of COBRA coverage (the period of COBRA health care FSA cannot be extended end of the current plan year under any circumstances).

Disability

If any of the qualified beneficiaries is determined by the Social Security Administration to be disabled, the maximum COBRA coverage period that results from the covered employee's termination of employment or reduction of hours (generally 18 months as described above) may be extended up to a total of 29 months.

The disability must have started at some time before the 61st day of COBRA coverage obtained due to the covered employee's termination of employment or reduction of hours with the State and must last until the end of the 18-month period of COBRA coverage.

Each qualified beneficiary who has elected COBRA coverage will be entitled to the disability extension if one of them qualifies. The disability extension is available only if you notify the COBRA administrator(s) in writing of the Social Security Administration's determination of disability within 60 days after the latest of:

- the date of the Social Security administration's disability determination;
- the date on which the qualified beneficiary loses (or would lose) coverage under the terms of the Plan as a result of the covered employee's termination of employment or reduction of hours; and
- the date on which the qualified beneficiary loses (or would lose) coverage under the terms of the Plan as a result of the covered employee's termination or reduction of hours. You must also provide this notice within the original 18 months of COBRA coverage obtained due to the covered employee's loss of coverage in order to be entitled to a disability extension.

The notice must be provided in writing and must include the following information:

- the name(s) and address(es) of all qualified beneficiaries who are receiving COBRA due to the initial qualifying event;
- the name and address of the disabled qualified beneficiary;
- the date that the qualified beneficiary became disabled;
- the date that the Social Security Administration made its determination of disability;
- a statement as to whether or not the Social Security Administration has

- subsequently determined that the qualified beneficiary is no longer disabled; and
- the signature, name and contact information of the individual sending the notice.

Your notice must include a copy of the Social Security Administration's determination of disability. You must mail this notice within the required time periods to the ADOA Benefits Office.

If the above procedures are not followed or if the notice is not provided within the 60-day notice period, there will be no COBRA coverage disability extension. If the qualified beneficiary is determined by the Social Security administration to no longer be disabled, you must notify the COBRA administrator(s) of that fact within 30 days after the Social Security Administration's determination. The notice must be provided in the same manner as, and include the same information required for, a notice of disability as described above.

Second Qualifying Event

An extension of coverage will be available to spouses and dependent children who are receiving COBRA coverage if a second qualifying event occurs during the first 18 months (or, in the case of a disability extension, the first 29 months) of COBRA coverage following the covered employee's loss of coverage.

The maximum amount of COBRA coverage available when a second qualifying event occurs is 36 months from the date COBRA coverage began. Such second qualifying events include the death of a covered employee, divorce or legal separation from the covered employee, or a dependent child's ceasing to be eligible for coverage as a dependent under the Plan.

This extension due to a second qualifying event is available only if you notify the COBRA administrator(s) in writing of the second qualifying event within 60 days after the date of the second qualifying event. The notice must include the following information:

- the name(s) and address(es) of all qualified beneficiaries who are receiving COBRA due to the initial qualifying event;
- a description of the second qualifying event;
- the date of the second qualifying event;
- the signature, name and contact information of the individual sending the notice.

In addition, you must provide documentation supporting the occurrence of the second qualifying event, if the ADOA Benefit Services Division requests it. Acceptable documentation includes a copy of the divorce decree, death certificate, or dependent child's birth certificate, driver's License, marriage license or letter from a university or institution indicating a change in student status. You must mail this notice within the required time periods to the ADOA Benefit Services Division. If the above procedures are not followed or if the notice is not provided within the 60-day notice period, there will be no extension of COBRA coverage due to a second qualifying event.

COBRA Coverage Cost

Generally each qualified beneficiary is required to pay the entire cost of COBRA coverage. The amount a qualified beneficiary is required to pay may not exceed 102 percent (or, in the case of an extension of COBRA coverage due to a disability, 150 percent) of the cost to the group health plan (including both employer and employee contributions) for coverage of a similarly situated plan participant who is not receiving COBRA coverage. The required monthly payment for each group health benefit provided under the Plan under which you are entitled to elect COBRA is noted on the Enrollment/Change form.

Making Your COBRA Coverage Payment

If you elect COBRA coverage, you do not have to send any payment with the election form. However, you must make your first payment for COBRA coverage no later than 45 days after the date of your election (this is the date the election form is postmarked, if mailed, or the date your election form is received by the individual at the address specified for delivery on the election form, if hand delivered). If you do not make your first payment for COBRA coverage in full within 45 days after the date of your election, you will lose all COBRA rights under the Plan. Your first payment must cover the cost of COBRA coverage from the time your coverage under the Plan would have otherwise terminated up through the end of the month before the month in which you make your first payment. You are responsible for making sure that the amount of your first payment is correct.

Please contact the ADOA Benefit Services Division for information about your COBRA payment including how much you owe.

Monthly Payments for COBRA Coverage

After you make your first payment for COBRA coverage, you will be required to make monthly payments for each subsequent month of COBRA coverage.

The amount due for each coverage period for each qualified beneficiary will be shown in the notice you receive. Under the Plan, each of these monthly payments for COBRA coverage is due on the first day of the month for that month's COBRA coverage.

If you make a monthly payment on or before the first day of the month to which it applies, your COBRA coverage under the Plan will continue for that month without any break. You will be billed for your COBRA coverage. It is your responsibility to pay your COBRA premiums on time.

Grace Periods for Monthly Payments

Although monthly payments are due on the first day of each month of COBRA coverage, you will be given a grace period of 30 days after the first day of the month to make each payment for that month. Your COBRA coverage will be provided for each month as long as payment for that month is made before the end of the grace period for that payment.

However, if you pay a monthly payment later than the first day of the month to which it applies, but before the end of the grace period for the month, your coverage under the Plan will be suspended as of the first day of the month and then retroactively reinstated (going back to the first day of the month) when the monthly payment is received. This means that your coverage will be suspended.

If you fail to make a monthly payment before the end of the grace period for that month, you will lose all rights to COBRA coverage under the Plan. If mailed, your payment is considered to have been made on the date that it is postmarked. If hand delivered, your payment is considered to have been made when it is received. Payments received or postmarked after the due date will not be accepted. You will not be considered to have made any payment if your check is returned due to insufficient funds or otherwise.

More Information About Individuals Who May be Qualified Beneficiaries

A child born to, adopted by, or placed for adoption with a covered member during a period of COBRA coverage is considered to be a qualified beneficiary provided that, if the covered member is a qualified beneficiary, the covered member has elected COBRA coverage for himself or herself and enrolls the child within 30 days of the birth, adoption or placement for adoption. To be enrolled in the Plan, the child must satisfy the otherwise applicable eligibility requirements (for example, age).

Alternative Recipients Under QMCSOs

A child of the covered employee who is receiving benefits under the Plan pursuant to a Qualified Medical Child Support Order (QMCSO) received by the State during the covered employee dates of coverage with the State is entitled to the same rights to elect COBRA as any other eligible dependent child of the covered employee.

This notice does not fully describe COBRA coverage or other rights under the Plan. More information about COBRA coverage and your rights under the Plan is available from the ADOA Benefit Services Division.
