All active (full-time and part-time) employees and spouses.

Program Commitment

Liberty reviews participants' activity annually to decide if this program is beneficial for both parties. However, if an organization decides they would not like to have Liberty continue to offer these benefits, then they can inform their Liberty liaison.

Employer's Obligation

There is no cost associated with being a participant. Liberty does not require an organization to provide a certain number of students per year. Liberty only asks that the Corporate Advantage Program benefits be shared with employees (Intranet, e-blast, etc.).

Program Process

1. Liberty does not require a contract to be on file unless requested by the employer, otherwise, written or verbal confirmation will suffice.
2. Liberty will create all marketing material to provide employer.
3. Once everything is created (usually within five business days), then your Liberty liaison will provide you or appropriate representative with the necessary information to begin sharing this information with employees.
